

QUALITY POLICY

The company Ramax Engineering d.o.o. as a modern and technologically advanced company for the production of tools for plastic injection molding, injection molding of plastic products and the assembly of assemblies, represents an important part of the strategy in the European market.

In the context of constant technological and legislative changes, market competitiveness and customer expectations, the company's goal is to achieve the highest level of industrial excellence and remain a globally recognized manufacturer of plastic products.

The quality management system is conform with ISO 9001 standard. Social responsibility is achieved by implementing the requirements of the SA8000 standard. Customer satisfaction is one of the highest goals of the company, which is achieved by reflecting the following values:

INNOVATION

PROFESSIONALISM

RELIABILITY

QUALITY

"All company employees and external contractors are responsible for the quality of the final product, which meets the requirements of our customers and legal requirements. Together with the other members of the management, we are committed to protect the environment, monitor the implementation of this policy and encourage employees to continuous progress. "

Emil Martinšek and Branko Ramšak,
Slovenske Konjice, 3.1.2024

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Emil Martinšek'.

03.01.2024